

Kill Devil Hills Police Department

Neighborhood Crime Blotter For April 2021

“COMMUNITY IMPROVEMENT THROUGH COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT”

Arrests:

Assault on a Female: During the month of April Kill Devil Hills Police Department responded to five Assault on a Female incidents. In several cases, the offenders were arrested for Assault on a Female and additional charges. Survivors of Domestic Violence or anyone experiencing domestic or sexual violence is encouraged to contact the Outer Banks Hotline. Hotline is available 24/7 for victims of domestic and sexual abuse and can be reached through their crisis line at 252-473-3366.

Possession of Narcotics: On April 15, 2021 officers performed a traffic stop and subsequently arrested a female for possession of cocaine.

Events

On April 16, 2021 Kill Devil Hills Police Officers were dispatched to assist an overdose victim. Upon arrival officers found an unconscious male and were advised he had taken a combination of narcotics. Officers used an AED (Automated External Defibrillator) and Naloxone to help save the individual. The man regained consciousness and was eventually transported to the Outer Banks Hospital.

All Kill Devil Hills officers carry lifesaving equipment such as AED's and Naloxone to assist in medical emergencies where they are often the first on scene. Officers are annually certified in Basic Lifesaving and often provide a crucial bridge between emergency medical assistance and higher level medical treatment.

Spring is here! If you find injured or abandoned wildlife while you are spring cleaning, please call Kill Devil Hills Animal Control at 252-480-4047 to help you. These baby possums were taken in by Animal Control after their mother was hit by a vehicle and killed. Animal Control found a local wildlife rehabilitation specialists to take the babies in and rehabilitate them until they can be released back into the wild.
