

Town of Kill Devil Hills Social Media Statement

The Town of Kill Devil Hills sponsors and maintains an official “Town of Kill Devil Hills” Facebook Page. The purpose of the page is to inform “Followers” about pertinent Town information, events, public service announcements, emergency-related items, and other public affairs activities. All information posted on this page is done so by the Town’s Administration Department.

This site is not intended for service requests and is not monitored by emergency services. Call 911 for emergencies.

The Town of Kill Devil Hills Facebook Page is maintained and monitored by the Town. The Town of Kill Devil Hills reserves the right to restrict or remove any posted inappropriate material from its “Followers.”

Inappropriate material may include, but is not limited to:

- Profane, vulgar, or violent language or content
- Threats or harassment toward any person or organization
- Hateful or discriminatory content regarding race, ethnicity, religion, gender, sexual orientation, disability, or political beliefs
- Solicitation content, promoting sales, services, brands, including advertisements
- Material advertising for a campaign or other partisan political content
- Spam and link baiting
- Content advocating, discussing, or encouraging illegal activity

The Town of Kill Devil Hills welcomes appropriate participation and comments from the public on this site. The Town acknowledges and appreciates “Followers” comments; however, the Town is unable to answer or respond to all questions and concerns via this forum. Please visit the Town of Kill Devil Hills’ official website at www.kdhnc.com for direct contact to Town departments.

Any comment, feedback, or other method of communication that is made by someone other than an official representative of the Town of Kill Devil Hills is solely the view and opinion of the author alone and does not reflect the views or opinions of the Town of Kill Devil Hills, its employees, or elected officials.

Representatives of the Town of Kill Devil Hills communicate via this Facebook Page. Consequently, any communication via this Page (whether by a government employee or the general public) is a public record and may be subject to monitoring and disclosure to third parties.

For specific questions, please e-mail info@kdhnc.com, call the Town Hall at 252-449-5300, or visit the Town's website at www.kdhnc.com.
